5marks:

1.In the poem "The Naughty Boy," where did the naughty boy go, and what did he realize about things there?

Answer: In the poem "The Naughty Boy," the naughty boy ran away to Scotland and realized that everything there—the ground, a yard, a song, and even a cherry—was surprisingly similar to what he knew in England. This revelation emphasizes the universality and commonality of experiences across different places.

2.What did the carpenter decide to make from the peculiar piece of wood in the story of Pinocchio?

Answer:

The carpenter, upon acquiring a peculiar piece of wood in the story of Pinocchio, decided to exercise his craftsmanship by creating a puppet named Pinocchio. This decision sets the stage for a tale where the puppet takes on a life of its own.

3.What consequences did Pinocchio face when he told lies in the story, and how did others react?

Answer:

Pinocchio faced unique consequences for his lies in the story, as each falsehood caused his nose to grow longer. The astonishment of others, including animals and the carpenter, mirrored the consequences of deceit. Pinocchio's eventual forgiveness, upon expressing remorse, highlights the theme of redemption.

4.How did the blue jackal convince other animals that he was their king in the Panchtantra tale?

Answer:

In the Panchtantra tale, the blue jackal cunningly convinced other animals of his kingship by immersing himself in a tub of blue dye. This clever stratagem showcased the power of perception and appearance in establishing authority.

5.What lesson did the blue jackal learn in the Panchtantra tale, and how did other animals react afterward?

Answer:

The Panchtantra tale of the blue jackal imparts a lesson about the consequences of deception. Following the revelation of his true identity, the blue jackal's promise to refrain from causing trouble again became the basis for forgiveness and reconciliation with the other animals, illustrating the theme of redemption and second chances.

Comprehension Passage:

Once a cunning jackal jumped into a big tub of blue dye.

“I am your king”, he said. All the animals, big and small, believed him and bowed before him. The clever jackal smiled. Now he was the most powerful animal in the forest. He was proud to be a king.

Once, the jackal woke up in the middle of the night. The jackals in the forest were howling at the full moon in the sky. The blue jackal forgot he was a king. He, too, began to howl.

“Hu...aah! Hu...aah! he cried.

The animals ran out to see. “He is not a king. He is just a jackal!” they shouted.

They rushed to attack him.

“Stop, stop! I am sorry I tricked you. Please do not kill me!” said the blue jackal.

The animals forgave him, but only after giving the jackal a good beating.

– A Panchtantra tale

Reading is Fun:

1. Why did the animals think that the jackal was a king?

Answer:

The animals thought that the jackal was a king because he appeared in blue colour.

2. How did the jackal become blue?

Answer:

The jackal jumped into a big tub of blue dye and became blue.

3. What did the animals do when they saw the blue jackal?

Answer:

When the animals saw the blue jackal, they thought that he was their king and bowed before him.

4. Why did the dogs feel scared when they saw the jackal?

Answer:

The dogs felt scared when they saw the jackal because the dogs thought the jackal was the most powerful animal in the forest.

5. How did the animals know that the king was just a jackal?

Answer:

Once the jackal woke up in the middle of the night hearing other jackals howling in the forest. The blue jackal forgot he was a king and began to howl loudly along with the other jackals. All the animals ran out to see and found out that the king was actually a jackal who was howling. In this way they came to know that the king was just a jackal.
